

Gregory A. Bopp

Vice President, Health, Safety, Environment and Facilities and Business Resilience, Honeywell Aerospace

Board of Managers, National Technology and Engineering Solutions of Sandia, LLC

Gregory A. Bopp was named the Honeywell Aerospace Vice President for Health, Safety, Environment and Facilities (HSE&F) in June 2020. Mr. Bopp leads the HSE&F and Business Resilience function for over 55 Integrated Supply Chain, Engineering, and administrative facilities globally. The HSE&F team includes more than 100 professionals in 15 countries. Mr. Bopp led the Aerospace organization through the COVID-19 pandemic not only with particular focus on health and safety excellence, but also attending to environmental compliance, business resilience (crisis management, business continuity, disaster recovery), energy sustainability, and Health, Safety, and Environment (HSE) due diligence for Mergers & Acquisitions and transaction activity.

Mr. Bopp was instrumental in qualifying Honeywell Aerospace to win the Campbell Award in 2015, demonstrating management and best practices in the field of health, safety, and environment. Mr. Bopp spearheaded the Aerospace Regulatory Engagement process, partnering with regulators and non-government organizations (NGO) to achieve HSE excellence. Additionally, multiple Aerospace sites hold Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Voluntary Protection Programs (VPP) status or its equivalent in countries outside the U.S. Prior to his current role, Mr. Bopp was the Senior Director of HSE&F after serving as the Director of Compliance Assurance.

Before joining Honeywell Aerospace in 2008, Mr. Bopp had roles with Philips Electronics and the Rexam Corporation in risk management and HSE management. He specialized in complex chemical wastewater treatment, air emissions treatment technology, hazardous waste reduction, loss prevention, and property remediation. Mr. Bopp earned his Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from the University of Illinois in 1989.

Mr. Bopp is a member of the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) Business Community Roundtable, the Arizona Chamber Environmental Committee, ADEQ's Voluntary Environmental Stewardship Program and the Arizona Environmental Strategic Alliance.